Random Event	The new leadership of the Party are considered too Chaotic by establishment backers.
Background	The Conservative Party stands for the maintenance of the status quo in Tehmor, which has worked well and resulted in the growth and prosperity of the City over many years. The Party believes that the existing political structure and laws have largely succeeded in promoting freedom of belief and keeping the peace between diverse Factions, and only gradual evolution is necessary to refine the system. A number of rich, powerful and Lawful vested interests support the Party, which has much common ground with the Mercantile Party, with whom it is often in Coalition.

Notes	Controls the votes of neutral Conservative Seats. Holds office of Overlord (Pasha) at start of Game.
