Random Event	A False Apostle of Change appears in Tehmor (e.g. Black, Apostle of Change for the Worse).
Background	The Apostles of Change first appeared in Estender 2501 teaching a new form of Magic-Using called Changing. Each was named after a particular colour of the rainbow and espoused a different kind of Change: being Red (Apostle of Imposed Change), Orange (Apostle of Spontaneous Change), Yellow (Apostle of Invented Change), Blue (Apostle of Restorative Change), Green (Apostle of Agreed Change), Indigo (Apostle of Consequential Change) and Violet (Apostle of Experimental Change). They claimed to be Apostles of RAVAR, God of Change, Who was responsible for profound Changes in the World, but was not Clerical and did not seek the Faith of His followers. However they still attracted large numbers of followers, who were attracted by the message of Change from what had gone before, and by a powerful new

Eventually some Apprentices became sufficiently skilled at Changing to be able to teach others. The Apostles travel widely, so only one of them is likely to be in Tehmor or the South at any one time.
Notes	At the beginning of each Role-playing Phase must specify the type of Change that is occurring that Game Turn (having regard to the Plots played) and may only play the Apostle of that kind of Change that Role-playing Phase (plus any Apprentice Changers).
