Tarot Card	VIII The Hermit
Alleyman's Tarot Card:	Death (sowing) (Page No. 23)
No. & Name of Plot:	31. Pestilence
Expansion	Fifty Factions
Description	Tehmor is afflicted by a Plague. SITH walks the streets.
Specify	This Plot should be played after a War or other significant outbreak of fighting (but if none has occurred during previous Role-Playing Phases you may specify one which occurred earlier but was not Role-played in the Game). Specify (i) the disease which afflicts the City and (ii) the area of the City where the first outbreak occurs (which should be where the fighting took place). SC: the Plot may be played outside Tehmor in an area on the SC Board where a War or significant fighting has taken place (which you may specify as above).
Notes	A deadly disease is spreading in the crowded streets of Tehmor. The Rat Cults are blamed (as usual). The Council's usual response to Plague is to declare a City-wide Lockdown, to be enforced by the City Guard. Clerics Curing Disease are exempt. SITH, Harbinger of Pestilence, is one of the Demigods of the Ayekal - dread Furies Who follow in the path of ZAKEL, God of War. He wields BUBOE, Weapon of Pestilence, one of the four Weapons of War, which are Bound Demons that can operate independently of Their wielders, and are able to shapechange into the forms of various beings, and walk the earth at will. BUBOE in Weapon form typically appears as a Super Heavy Scythe.
